Employment type: Part-time

Location: South Africa

Commencement Date: 1 April 2021

Mikhulu Child Development Trust is an NPO working in early childhood development – our passion and expertise is in supporting children’s cognitive and socio-emotional development, through developing evidence-based interventions for parents. We are known for our rigorous focus on quality and high-impact programmes.

Over the next few years, we will influence social spaces and systems serving parents of young children, by elevating the role of the parent and strengthening the mechanisms through which parents receive support on early stimulation.

We are a small, but dynamic team, and we are looking to fill a part-time specialist role in helping us find partners to support our work.

Key responsibilities

- Develop strategic plan for sustainability through growing funds and developing partnerships
- Understand our vision and identify donors and partners aligned to our vision
- Conduct research into potential donors to investigate partnership/funding opportunities
- Develop funding proposals, working closely with the CEO
- Initiate and maintain relationships with partners and donors

Minimum requirements:

- Proven well-rounded experience in fundraising
- Excellent communication skills, including verbal, written and presentation skills
- Excellent research skills, including experience with research resources
- Knowledgeable and experienced in fundraising for the NPO sector

Competencies

- Strategic and innovative thinker
- Effective research skills
- Details oriented
